Student Loan Q&A

Q: Am I Eligible?

A: Borrower must meet the following requirements:

- U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Enrolled at least half-time in an eligible school
- Meet minimum credit requirements

Q: What is the importance of a Cosigner?

A: Applying with a creditworthy cosigner not only increases your chance of approval, but also may lead to a lower loan rate

Q: What are some tips to keep in mind?

A: Remember to:

- Exhaust all federal loans
- Get started early
- Only request the amount you need for the current academic period

Q: Do I need to complete the FAFSA in order to qualify for private student loans?

A: No. However, we encourage you to complete the FAFSA each year, to ensure that you take full advantage of grants and other federal aid you may be eligible to receive. Private student loans are a way for you to fill the funding gap between the cost of attending school and the amount of federal loans, grants, and scholarships available to you.

^{*} Private student loans should be used as supplemental funding after exhausting all other sources of financial aid, including grants, scholarships, and federal student loans. Federal loans offer more attractive terms when compared to most other borrowing options, including private student loans. For more information on federal loans, visit http://www.fafsa.ed.gov.
